"Fran provided excellent mentoring that equipped me to transition from a Professional Certified Coach to a Master Certified Coach, credential just two months after our mentoring sessions ended. She went above and beyond in assessing several of my recorded coaching sessions and transcripts and providing valuable feedback on each ICF competency. While I had ups and downs on my learning journey to apply new coaching behaviors at a more advanced level, Fran was encouraging, optimistic, and supportive. She helped me move through a breakdown to a breakthrough and from doubt to confidence. She brings her authentic, cheerful, and buoyant qualities to her coaching work, and I am fortunate to have been her mentee. Thank you, dear Fran, for your encouragement and support during this crucial professional development journey!"

"Fran, what you bring to coach mentoring is energy, passion, enthusiasm, and authenticity. You care deeply about people and those you work with while holding to a strong set of standards for yourself and others. There is wisdom and strength of conviction in which you live your values. As for the ICF competencies, you embody them. You bring them to life and are able to demonstrate them so they are clearly understandable. It is this mix of energy and strength that I value so much.

You took time to understand me, and I really appreciate that you didn't cut corners. Instead, you challenged me! Working with you, it's clear that it's not just about "getting there" — you really encourage coaches to live those principles (and you do). You have served as a role model for me, and I particularly valued how you demonstrated the art of listening. I also learned what contracting with the client truly means from the way you mentored me.

Your resource materials are excellent, and you always had somewhere to point me so that I could learn for myself. I am deeply grateful for what you shared with me through the mentoring process, and how it all continues to help me and my clients."
